

I. Open the brackets putting the verbs into Present Simple, Present Continuous, Past Simple, Past Continuous, Future Simple, Present Perfect or Present Perfect Continuous. Be attentive: sometimes passive forms may be needed! (18 points)

1. We ..... (to go) to the countryside tomorrow if the weather ..... (to be) fine.
2. We ..... (to go) to the cinema yesterday. – What film you ..... (to watch)?
3. “Ferrari” cars ..... (to produce) in Italy.
4. I ..... (not to finish) reading your book yet. I ..... (to give) it back to you as soon as I ..... (to finish).
5. How many episodes of the serial you ..... (to watch) today? – Just a few.
6. When the fire ..... (to start) we ..... (to watch) television.
7. “Romeo and Juliette” ..... (to write) by William Shakespeare.
8. My sister ..... (to study) now. She ..... (to study) for three hours.
9. We ..... (usually not to stay) at home on Saturday evenings.
10. I can't find my wallet! I think it ..... (to steal)!
11. While the teacher ..... (to speak), two pupils ..... (not to listen).

II. Open the brackets and use to-infinitive, bare infinitive (without “to”) or gerund. (10 points)

1. Max is fond of ..... (to play/play/playing) board games.
2. I think Lucy is not old enough ..... (to go/go/going) to school alone.
3. He hates ..... (to play/play/playing) cards.
4. We go ..... (to swim/swim/swimming) every weekend.
5. Students must ..... (to do/do/doing) their homework regularly.
6. Stacey loves ..... (to watch/watch/watching) programmes about wildlife.
7. I'd love ..... (to see/see/seeing) that new film.
8. How about ..... (to have/have/having) lunch at a café?
9. Every Sunday we drive to the nearest supermarket ..... (to buy/buy/buying) some food for the week.
10. You should ..... (to help/help/helping) your parents with household duties.

III. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate articles. (20*0.5=10 points)

1. I can't open ..... door. Can you help me?
2. It was ..... best film I have ever watched.
3. My friend is very good at ..... English. She says it's ..... very beautiful language.
4. My elder sister is ..... professional musician. She plays ..... piano.
5. .... C/coffee is too hot, I can't drink it now.
6. Last year we decided to go to ..... seaside and went to ..... Black Sea.
7. What ..... lovely weather! It is very warm outside and ..... sun is shining brightly. Let's go for ..... walk after ..... lunch.
8. .... M/mistakes I made in my test were very silly.
9. I feel not very well today so I prefer to stay in ..... bed.
10. ... New York is one of ..... biggest cities in ..... USA, but not ..... capital of ..... country.

IV. Choose the correct preposition. (20*0.5=10 points)

1. She arrived (in/at/-) home (at/on/in) four o'clock.
2. What are you looking (at/on/for)? – My keys. I think, I've lost them.
3. I was waiting (to/for/-) a bus (at/on/in) the bus stop when I saw that car driving (on/in/at) a high speed.
4. When my brother listens (to/for/-) his favourite heavy metal music it is impossible to stay (in/at/on) home.
5. Tidy (up/in/out) your room, our guests are coming (at/in/on) two hours.
6. Laura smiled (to/at/-) me happily when I invited her (at/in/to) the cinema.
7. Look (at/on/in) the photo. Do you know anybody (at/on/in) it?
8. Once or twice (in/-/at) a month my family and I eat (over/out/on) at a café or a restaurant.
9. Mary isn't here. She will come (on/out/back) late (in/at/on) the evening.
10. It was so hot (on/under/in) the sun that we decided to wait (in/for/at) the shade of a big tree.

V. Choose the correct variant. (12*0.5=6 points)

1. Have you got ... (much/many/few) work to do today?
2. There is too ... (much/many/a lot of) noise in the street.
3. I haven't read ... (much/many/little) of these books.
4. Hurry up! We have ... (much/a lot of/little) time left.
5. We have ... (a few/few/a little) apples. Let's make an apple pie.
6. There are ... (many/a lot of/much) new expensive houses in our street.
7. We have very ... (little/few/a few) eggs left. Somebody has to go to the shop.
8. Have you got ... (some/any/something) questions?
9. I don't want ... (something/anything/nothing) to eat.
10. Would you like ... (some/any/no) coffee?
11. It was very dark in the room. I could see ... (something/anything/nothing) there.
12. Most people like Tom's jokes, but ... (some/any/no) don't.

VI. Complete the sentences changing the words in brackets.
Attention: sometimes you will need a negative prefix un-. (11 points)

1. My sister can draw very ..... (BEAUTY). We have a lot of her pictures on the walls.
2. The clothes were very expensive, but, to my surprise, very ..... (COMFORT).
3. Do you know any ..... (TRADITION) British dishes?
4. PE lessons help you to develop physical ..... (STRONG).
5. I like this shop. There is a wide ..... (CHOOSE) of goods and the shop ..... (ASSIST) are very polite and ..... (HELP).
6. The problem is that she is very ..... (PUNCTUAL). She rarely comes anywhere on time.
7. Helen cried with ..... (EXCITED) when she heard the news.
8. I adore cooking so there are a lot of recipes in my ..... (COOK) book.
9. Alex is very ..... (RESPONSE) with money. He never wastes it on different unimportant stuff.

TOTAL: 65 points